

Objective:

i-Nova Global Consultants was awarded a task of management and successful completion of a large Telecom UPS Project in Gladstone Australia. The scope of the project was on time completion of deliverables involved in the design, manufacture, installation and commissioning of all UPS and Battery systems in accordance with the safety and regulatory standards mandated by the authorities in the USA and Australia. Additionally development & provision of training to a group of selected operators was also part of the project scope.

- Customer: Cyberex UPS (Member of ABB Group)
- Project Scope: US$1.8 Million
- Locations: Dubai, U.A.E; Richmond, USA; Ahmadabad, India; Sydney, Australia
- Project Duration: 14 months
- Software Used: MS Project 2010

Responsibilities:

- Responsible for directing the activities of individuals and teams located at three global locations.
- Responsibilities included being the first point of contact for the customer to resolve concerns and provide documentation and information as needed by during various stages of the project.
- Performed On-site acceptance testing at multiple supplier locations to assure adherence to Cyberex standards.
- Responsible for scheduling and successful completion of Acceptance Testing as required by the project. (Internal Manufacturing Testing; Customer Factory Acceptance Testing & Site Acceptance Testing)
- Responsible for providing compliance to Cyberex manufacturing standards while assuring strict adherence to Australian standards and the agreed upon customer specifications.
- i-Nova Global Consultants had complete budgetary authority to make financial decisions to assure project meets financial targets set by the management team.